

SANT NIRANKARI MISSION WASHINGTON DC BRANCH
SERVED LUNCH AT
EMBRY RUCKER SHELTER IN RESTON, VA
December 29th 2007

The holiday season is a time of celebrating traditions, spending time with loved ones, and most importantly it is time of giving it to the people who are less fortunate. A team of Sant Nirankari Mission Washington DC Branch humbly volunteered with their hearts and selfless service for the less fortunate at the Embry Rucker Shelter in Reston On December 29th 2007.

Members of Volunteer Group #4 (Rev. Maya Dadlani Ji and Rev. Sohan Kumar Ji) along with Rev. Prem Dadlani Ji, In-charge (Pramukh) of the Washington D.C branch, Rev. Randawa Ji, Rev. Aman Ji and Rev. Oberoi Ji arrived early in the morning to participate in the holiday meal service, where saints prepared and served hot meals for the homeless and needy.

The lunch service began at 11:45 AM and lasted for about an hour and a half. Approximately (35) individuals including children visited the shelter and enjoyed the meal served by Sant Nirankari Mission Washington DC Branch volunteers. The rewarding experience of helping complete strangers through selfless service brings warmth to the hearts and defines the true meaning of the holidays.

This was the last Meal by the Sant Nirankari Mission for the 2007. The Mission will continue to provide this service periodically throughout the New Year (2008) to serve the Virginia Community, by various volunteer groups of the Washington DC Sangat.

Anuj Malik
Social Activities Director
Sant Nirankari Mission (USA)
Washington DC Branch