

Loving and Caring is no longer in Fashion

Loving and caring is no longer in fashion
Hate is spread freely yet love is rationed
To give more love should be our only action
Love should be multiplying but it's stuck in subtraction
Give love and remove the hate
Then only our life will be great
For man is currently in a miserable state
Only by giving love this hate will dissipate

Our Satguru is working day and night
To fight hate with love and darkness with light
Our Satguru is our father and our mother too
Yet we still don't listen to what he wants us to do
His instructions are simple so straight and repeated
So why are we still by this material world defeated?
We have to be strong and do as we are told
For soon enough we will all be old
We have the opportunity the physic and strength
To spread this truth to any length

Everything in my life is given by you
My wonderful family and friends too
So in return my dear lord
There is nothing I can give nothing I can afford
For everything I own is by your grace
My house my car every cream for my face
So my dear lord for strength I pray
So that I can spread your love everyday
So that I can spread your light north south
So that I never say bad from my mouth
So that I can make you my father so so proud
And contribute to making hate quiet and loving loud
Bless me I can use this opportunity physic and strength
To spread this truth to any length
