

K R Chadha Ji's visit to New Jersey Bhawan

With the grace of Satguru Mata Savinder Hardev Ji Maharaj, New Jersey branch had the blessed opportunity to host a special congregation October 5th, 2016 in the presence of K.R. Chadha Ji, Vice President of Central Planning and Advisory Board of Sant Nirankari Mission, Delhi. Rev. Chadha Ji, a veteran saint who has been serving the mission for decades was accompanied by his wife Mrs. Santosh Chadha Ji and other family members. Devotees not only from New Jersey and New York, but also Connecticut and Pennsylvania made an effort to attend the congregation and seek blessings from the esteemed saint.

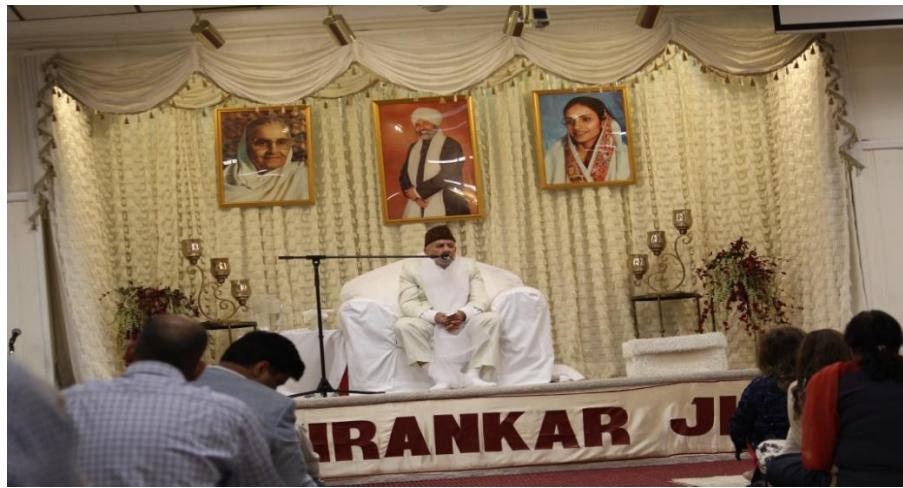

During the special congregation, devotees sang hymns and shared their thoughts & personal accounts of faith. Some devotees also shared their learning experiences from the visiting saint that served as a building block in their spiritual journey. Ashok Wahi Ji, the pramukh of NJ branch welcomed and expressed gratitude on behalf of the entire Sadh Sangat.

Addressing the congregation and seeking blessings from all, Rev. Chadha Ji emphasized on the permanence of the Satguru, the True Master. Satguru is not limited to the mortal body, rather is ever-living through the eternal truth of God knowledge. Satguru Mata Savinder Hardev Ji, the True Master of the time, is carrying the torch of enlightenment forward. As devotees, it is our duty to follow the teachings of the Satguru. An absolute example of such devotion was embodied by Raj Mata Ji.

The revered saint also stressed on the importance of discipline and punctuality towards congregation. He concluded his discourse by extending an invitation to the upcoming Annual Samagam in Delhi in presence of Satguru Mata Ji.

The holy prayer marked the conclusion of the event. The aura of the NJ Satsang bhawan was filled with love and compassion. Devotees lined up with their families to seek blessings and few personal moments with the saint. Many had grown up following the footsteps and under the guidance of this notable figure.
