

Blood Donation Drive

Raleigh, North Carolina, USA - April 21st, 2019

On April 21st 2019, the Sant Nirankari Mission Raleigh, NC conducted Manav Ekta Divas followed by a Blood donation drive at three different locations across Raleigh, NC and surrounding areas. Manav Ekta Divas is celebrated by Sant Nirankari Mission to commemorate the supreme sacrifice of Baba Gurbachan Singh Ji who laid down his life on 24th April 1980 while crusading for truth, love, peace, and unity in the world. Devotees paid Tribute to Baba Gurbachan Singh Ji by remembering His teaching as well emphasizing on Blood Donation which was initiated by Baba Hardev Singh Ji with the slogan of “Blood should flow in Veins not in Drains” after the assassination of His Satguru/Father Baba Gurbachan Singh Ji. Following the Manav Ekta Diwas, with the help of a local blood bank “The Blood Connection”, a Blood Donation drive was held at 3 separate locations in order to bring awareness and spread the message of Mission in different parts of Raleigh, NC. Devotees from Raleigh Branch as well as the local population donated blood for the noble cause. Even though the “The Blood Connection” had very stringent regulations for the donors due to which not everyone was able to donate but with the blessings of the Satguru and the efforts of local sangat, Sant Nirankari Mission Raleigh was able to collect a total of 52 units/pints of blood donations. The amazing effort and selfless service towards the cause of humanity received a lot of appreciation by the local community and by the officials and staff of The Blood Connection.
