The couple was visiting Raleigh branch on a parchar visit. Rev. Dan Ji presided Sunday congregation which was attended by local saints as well as the saints from adjoining areas. Devotional songs & speeches were presented glorifying the Lord Almighty.

In the vichar Rev. Dan Ji emphasized on the importance of Simran, Satsang & Sewa. He preached the message of the mission to perform service or sewa selflessly without any motive. He encouraged the sangat to do sewa in such a secrecy that the left hand doesn't get to know what the right hand did. Having God knowledge, which is attained by the grace of Satguru gives devotees a vision to see the world as one family and do selfless service to the humanity.
