Dear Sant Nirankari Mission:

On behalf of Reston Interfaith and the clients of the Embry Rucker Community Shelter, thank you for your generous donation of catering and serving several meals throughout 2008. This food serves an important role in ensuring that shelter residents are able to receive quality and delicious food as well as positive interaction with community members.

Your confidence in our mission of helping individuals and families towards self-sufficiency is truly gratifying. Our success in offering nurturing social services is only possible because of the wonderful involvement and support for our program. The Embry Rucker Community Shelter helps more than 500 men, women and children in this community each year.

About Reston Interfaith:

Reston Interfaith is a nonprofit organization serving Northern Virginia that promotes self-sufficiency through support and advocacy for those in need of food, shelter, affordable housing, quality childcare, and other services. Founded in 1970 by area religious organizations to encourage the development of affordable housing for families and individuals in the area, the agency has since broadened its program scope and service area to address the most pressing social needs of our neighbors in Northern Virginia.

Funded in part by Fairfax County and the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development
