Guru Puja Divas Samagam & 4th Annual Street Cleaning Community Service Sunday February 24th 2019

With the blessings of Her Holiness Satguru Mata Sudiksha Ji Maharaj, the annual Guru Puja Divas Samagam was celebrated at the Washington DC Center on February 24th, 2019. Saints from Florida also participated in the Samagam along with local saints from Maryland, Virginia, and Washington DC.

The Samagam started with Sewadal Rally where all members of Washington DC center sewadal participated. Importance of doing sewa in sewadal uniform and with love and humbleness was emphasized. Missions history and Satguru baba Hardev Singh Ji's teaching of unconditional love were discussed as well. Rev. Preet Sahi Ji from Florida presided the congregation.

Res. Sheetal Chaudhari from Florida shared Satguru's message of Love and Peace through his melodious hymns. Rev. Preet Sahi ji, in her discourse, shared How Satguru Baba Hardev Singh ji always loved everyone unconditionally and cared for whole humanity.

Sant Nirankari Mission, Washington DC Metropolitan Area Spiritual Center, also organized its 4th annual Street Cleaning Drive to commemorate the Guru Puja Divas. This community service is part of continued commitment of Sant Nirankari Mission Washington DC metropolitan area spiritual center to Virginia Department of Transportation's (VDOT) Adopt-A-Highway program. Street cleaning was performed on part Pleasant Valley Road that is adopted by the spiritual center. 17 large bags of trash were collected that were later picked up by VDOT from center facility. Members of Washington DC congregation and saints from Florida participated in the community service.

May we always remember Satguru Mata Ji's message and follow in her footsteps to spread love, kindness, and wish goodwill for all through our words and actions. We pray to her holiness that we can continue our participation in events that help keep our community
