SNM Washington DC center participated in INTERFAITH PANEL DISCUSSION – VOICES FOR PEACE December 19, 2023

Sant Nirankari Mission Washington DC Metropolitan Area Spiritual Center participated in an Interfaith Panel Discussion on VOICES FOR PEACE organized by The Ahmadiyya Muslim Community Northern Virginia Chapter. Members of our Mission, Respected Ram Nagrani Ji and Respected Rajinder Gahunia Ji, participated in this event. Other local organizations that participated in the panel discussion were:

- Temple Beth Torah – Rabbi Lauren Laird
- Loudon Interfaith BRIDGES – Rev Dr David Milam
- Ahmadiyya Muslim Community – Imam Zafarullah Hanjra
- Rajdhani Mandir – Mr. Alok Srivastava
- Art of Living Foundation – Mr. Rajiv Sharma

All participants expressed the urgent need for peace in the world today and quoted from various religious and spiritual faiths about how we are all children of one God and should learn to live as brothers and sisters building awareness of each other and also being of service to the community.

Res. Ram Nagrani in his presentation stated the following two quotations often mentioned by His Holiness Baba Hardev Singh Ji Maharaj in his vichaars, and ended by praying that may God reduce our biases and help us live together with love and compassion.

- Vasudaiva Kutumbakam – The whole universe is but one family of God
- Ye pehla sabak hai kitabe huda ka ki makhlook sari ahi kumba Khuda ka – The first teaching in the book of existence is that the whole creation is one God's family.

May Almighty Nirankar and Her Holiness Satguru Mata Sudiksha Ji Maharaj bless the whole world with peace and happiness.
